

!

Founding university president dies at 93

was very influential in their eventual approval of the name change to Cal State East Bay in January 2005.”